

JOIN HABITAT FOR HUMANITY FOR THIS IMPORTANT SAFETY TRAINING

Competent Person Safety Training

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Anyone who operates a construction site or is associated with construction activities. It is an OSHA requirement that you have a trained "Competent Person" on the job site. If you do not have such a person on a site, you could be risking more than you may realize!

Habitat for Humanity invites you to participate in this very important training session. This class is open to both Habitat / Non-Habitat staff and volunteers.

The training will be led by: Mike Humes, Master Safety Trainer, Habitat for Humanity International - U.S. Safety Specialist

Black Hills Area Habitat for Humanity is hosting this safety training for anyone involved in construction or retail operations, including staff and volunteers. The workshop will be held at the Volunteer Training Facility, adjacent to ReStore, at 610 E Omaha Street, Rapid City, SD 57701.

Class size is limited to 25 people, so be sure to register before classes are filled!

Monday and Tuesday
June 6 and June 7, 2016
Construction OSHA Training - $130
(2-day course | 8:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.)

Registration fees will cover materials, lunch and snacks. Attendees will be tested, and certified as a "Competent Person" upon completion of the course.

The training sessions will cover four (4) major areas:

- Fall Protection
- Scaffolding
(Fabricated Type, Pump Jack Type, Bracket Type)
- General Jobsite Electrical Safety
- Stairways and Ladders
