

2015 Construction Camp Rapid City

Across the country the construction workforce is dwindling as skilled trades people retire, not to be replaced. The AGC, Western Dakota Tech and AGC member companies put on Construction Awareness Days (CAD) as one way to promote careers in construction to the next generation.

CAD 2015 will feature some exciting new approaches, including highlighting WDT's four construction-related programs (CAD, Environmental Engineering, HVAC & Electrical) & allowing students to operate heavy-equipment. Students will also get a live job-site tour by RCS Construction and the opportunity to explore the all NEW Skills Dakota Training Trailers!

AGC & WDT together, are trying to catch the next generation of skilled workers and show them the many construction career opportunities above "running a shovel"! Construction isn't just about being "dirty," and while that is often a good place to start, there are many other opportunities within the industry! Support our future workforce by sponsoring this great event!
