

How does your current presence on social media stack up?

Your potential customers expect to not only find your business on social media channels, they also expect to find information about your business, how to contact you AND they want to be educated, informed and entertained.

The Social Media Marketing Boot Camp is a full day seminar where we bring in local experts and will be covering different social media platforms from a business perspective. Sessions include:

- Facebook
- Instagram, Twitter, LinkedIn, Pinterest
- Search Engines
- Online Review
- YouTube
- Putting it all together!

Connecting with your audience using social media can be a fun adventure. Here is your opportunity to learn real tools and tips that you could start using right away.

Registration is $99 per person and lunch is included.
