

JIM SCULL

2019 Inductee to the South Dakota Hall of Fame

Our congratulations to Jim Scull, CEO of Scull Construction Service Inc., for being named to the 2019 Class of the South Dakota Hall of Fame.

Jim has had a keen desire to give back and do something meaningful from an early age due to his upbringing and the life changing service he gave to our country in Vietnam. He has a compassionate heart for those who are less fortunate and need help and direction to live a fulfilled life. With Jim's give back and get it done attitude he has helped many organizations that help with youth, Native American issues and conservation, throughout the local and state area. Jim has vision for the projects he is involved with and will see them through to completion. He gives with his time and ideas, as well as with monetary contributions. Jim will always listen to those who come to him for guidance and will give truthful words and points of encouragement. Those who have worked with Jim see the success he helps to bring to their organization and have given him many accolades throughout the years.

Jim's entrepreneurial spirit and leadership in the community began with his early successes in business. Always an optimist and seeing opportunity in all things, he started many businesses and owned much real estate and lead many local non-profit boards. Jim's business ownership has included MAC Construction, Scull Construction, EHC, Inc., Dakota Specialties, High Power, Inc., and multiple real estate ventures and startups in surrounding states. Jim took an active role in the Rapid City Community with leadership roles in numerous non-profit boards in the area. These would include Wellspring, Black Hills Works, Big Brothers-Big Sisters of the Black Hills, Rapid City Chamber of Commerce, Rapid City Economic Development Partnership, Rural America Initiatives, Rapid City Youth Boxing Club, Rapid City Post 320 Legion Baseball, Teton Coalition, Pennington County Drug and Alcohol Advisory Board, Associated General Contractors of South Dakota, Governors Blue Ribbon Task Force, South Dakota Youth Hunting Adventures, Rapid City Collective Impact and Canyon Lake Senior Citizens, leading to many awards both at the local level and the state level. He is most proud of the achievements he has been a part of which lift up the Native Americans in our state, the youth of the state, and the work he has been part of for conservation of the lands of South Dakota.
