Reasonable Suspicion for Supervisors

Supervisors will learn what they need to look for, and actions to take if they suspect someone is working while under the influence of drugs or alcohol. This information will assist supervisors in maintaining a proactive approach to drug and alcohol use among employees.

This course meets PHMSA, FMCSA, and the Drug-free Workplace Act of 1988 for Federal Contractors and grantees.

We can also write your Drug and Alcohol policy!
Just ask!!

Let us design your Safety Training programs

No more canned programs!

No more boring PPT's!

Let our staff incorporate modern design and safety practices into your plan for educating your workers to make your training program more effective.
